

Katharine House Hospice - Gambling Self Exclusion Form

We are aware that members, for personal reasons, may wish to exclude themselves from the Katharine House Hospice Lottery and other gambling products, such as our raffle.

If you wish to be excluded from the KHH gambling products, please complete the form below.

Following this, a member of the Supporter Care Team will then contact you via telephone to explain our procedure for self-exclusion and obtain your final authorisation. There will be no need to discuss your reasons for self-excluding.

Members wishing to self-exclude themselves will be unable to rejoin or receive any correspondence for a minimum of six months. This period can be increased if necessary.

NOTE - If you are currently paying by standing order you also need to cancel this by contacting your bank.

Any credit outstanding on your account will be refunded to you within two weeks of receiving authorisation for self-exclusion
